

Presentation of the SCPGS Henry James Young Awards

STAFF REPORT

South Central Pennsylvania Genealogical Society: Henry James Young Awards

WHEN: The presentation of the Henry James Young Awards will be held at 2:15 p.m., Sunday, June 5.

WHO: This year Kathryn Jordan and Franklin R. Grove Jr. will be honored.

» Jordan is an active member of the Stewartstown Historical Society, and member of South Central Pennsylvania Genealogical Society. Kathryn is a former SCPGS board member and served one year as president. She typed and prepared the United States Direct Tax of 1798 – The Hopewell Townships (also known as the Glass Tax census).

» Grove serves as membership, registrar & genealogist for York's Continental Congress Chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution, and is a member of South Central Pennsylvania Genealogical Society. He is a current SCPGS board member and served one term as president.

WHERE: in the Meeting Hall of the York County Heritage Trust located at 250 East Market St., York.

DETAILS: A brief business meeting will begin at 2:15, and the program will immediately follow at approximately 2:30 p.m.

CONTACT: 717-266-2196

WAVEBREAKMEDIA/GETTY IMAGES/STOCKPHOTO
Soldier reunited with his daughter on a sunny day.

Community salute to the armed forces in Dover

STAFF REPORT

WHAT: A salute to the armed forces
WHEN: 10:30 a.m., Sunday, May 29.
WHERE: Lighthouse Baptist Church at 5005 Carlisle Road, Dover.

DETAILS: The public is invited to the Lighthouse Baptist Church for a salute to the armed forces featuring patriotic music and honor guard.

Special recognition will be given to all veterans of the U.S. Armed Forces, those who have passed, as well as those who are currently serving. Those attending are encouraged to CONTACT: 717-292-5000 or visit www.lighthousebap.org.

Her Traditions scholarship recipients named

SUBMITTED

York Traditions Bank recently named the winners of its 2016 Her Traditions scholarship program. Winners were chosen based on their "superior leadership skills, admirable academic achievement and promising potential to become a future woman leader of our community." Each young woman received $500 toward their educational endeavors. Pictured seated, from left, are: Bethany Weaver, of West York Area High School; Ellen Greene, of Spring Grove Area Senior High School; and Avery Apgar, of Central York High School. Pictured standing, from left, are: Gene Draganosky, president of York Traditions Bank; Nancy Diaz, of Hanover High School; Erin Brenneman, of Red Land Area High School; and Carolyn Schaefer, managing director of specialized banking at York Traditions Bank.

SUBMITTED

Makenna Martin, left, is pictured alongside Alyssa Wendel.

Local students complete leadership program

STAFF REPORT
YORK DAILY RECORD

Two Delone Catholic High School sophomores were named "Future Leaders of York" by Leadership York. Makenna Martin and Alyssa Wendel graduated from the program on May 15 with a desire to become more actively involved in their community.

ABOUT FUTURE LEADERS OF YORK

Future Leaders of York is aimed at helping high school sophomores and juniors become lifelong, responsible, active participants in their hometown community. Over the course of seven months, students learn about leadership styles, philanthropy, advocacy, human services, arts and culture, effective meeting skills, group decision making, grant-making, and government. Two students from each high school in York County participate.

TrueNorth staff wear green for a cause

SUBMITTED

TrueNorth Wellness Services recognized National Children's Mental Health Awareness Week from May 1-7. Several staff members wore green to show their support. Members of the York office are pictured, from left: Melissa Speal, Michelle Rubio, Jen Warehime and Jen Bergels.

5 generations of Emenheiser

SUBMITTED

Bill Strouse submitted this photo of his five-generation family. Pictured in the back row, from left, are: Chris Strouse Washack, of Leraysville; Betty Strouse Emenheiser, of Lower Windsor Township; and Bill Strouse, of Springettsbury Township. Laila Knickerbocker, being held, and Brooke Kirkessnet Knickerbocker, both of Tioga, are pictured in the front row.

Chicken barbecue, bake and yard sale

STAFF REPORT

WHAT: A community chicken barbecue, bake and yard sale.

WHEN: A yard sale will be held 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., Saturday, June 4; food sales begin at 11 a.m.

WHERE: Locust Grove United Church of Christ, 1035 Locust Grove Road, York.

DETAILS: The rental fee for a yard sale space is $10, and this fee will be donated to the Red Lion Area Food Bank. Those participating must provide their own table.

Dinners will be available until sold out. The cost of the dinner is $9. Food items for the Red Lion Area Food Bank will be accepted at the chicken barbecue.

CONTACT: 717-755-1318.