

"Elf the Musical Jr" for children with special needs

Tuesday, August 2

TrueNorth Wellness Services, a behavioral health and wellness organization with offices across central Pa., invites you to a free, private showing of "Elf the Musical Jr.," exclusively for children with special needs and their families. Families are invited to join in fun activities beginning at 5 p.m. Activities may include face painting, hair styling, balloons, fun crafts, soft children's music, therapy dogs, hot and cold concessions, and fire truck display. The showing will begin at 6:15 p.m. and last for approximately 60 minutes. Guests are welcome to enter and exit the theatre as needed throughout the program. The show will be catered to your child's needs with comfortable lighting and lowered sound.

Where: Grace Milliman Pollock Performing Arts Center, 340 N. 21st St., Camp Hill, PA 17011

When: 5:00 PM - 7:30 PM

Who: All ages are welcome, exclusively for children with special needs and their families

How: The Bill Gladstone Group of NAI CIR is hosting this special event to support TrueNorth Wellness Services. Their goal is to provide a free and fun family friendly activity in a supportive and understanding environment.
